Say Goodbye to Microsoft Publisher and Hello to Canva!

United Neighborhoods of Evansville (UNOE) is excited to announce a major upgrade to our communication and design toolkit. With Microsoft Publisher being phased out, we are thrilled to transition to a much more powerful and user-friendly platform: Canva.

Even better, UNOE has successfully obtained a Canva Pro Non-Profit license! This premium tier allows us to host up to 50 members under our organizational umbrella, and we are opening up these seats to our community. Any neighborhood member of UNOE can request a license to use Canva Pro absolutely free!

If you haven't used Canva before, it is a fantastic, web-based design tool that makes creating professional materials incredibly easy. Here are just a few of the premium features you'll have access to:

- Thousands of Premium Templates: Easily create eye-catching neighborhood newsletters, event flyers, social media graphics, and meeting presentations in minutes.
- Massive Media Library: Unlock millions of premium stock photos, illustrations, graphics, and fonts without worrying about copyright or extra fees.
- Drag-and-Drop Editor: No graphic design experience is required! The intuitive interface is incredibly easy to learn and use.
- Cloud-Based Collaboration: Work on designs from any computer or mobile device, and easily share your work with other neighborhood volunteers.
- Magic Studio AI: Utilize built-in AI tools to remove image backgrounds, generate text, and resize designs for different platforms instantly.

Whether you are putting together a monthly neighborhood newsletter or creating flyers for your next block party, Canva Pro will make the process faster and more enjoyable.

Ready to get started? Don't miss out on this fantastic free resource! To request a license and get your account set up, please contact the UNOE office for an email invitation, or reach out directly to Brandon, Sr. Vice President, at vp@unoevansville.org.

Need a little help learning the ropes? Brandon has offered an in-person training and tutorial class for anyone interested in learning how to use Canva! Classes will be held at the UNOE Office. Please contact the office to schedule which date and time you would like to attend. The available options are:

- September 21: 4:00 PM - 5:00 PM
